... Defendant

This suit is coming up before this court for hearing today (17.11.2025) in the presence of learned counsel Tr.D.Sailapathy Advocate for the plaintiffs and learned counsel Thiru.P.Arulanantham Advocate for the Defendant. On this day the suit stage for Trial. No representation, plaintiffs also called absent and upon perusing the case records, this court delivered the following.

Judgment

This suit for granting Permanent injunction in favor of the plaintiffs and against the defendant thereby restraining the defendant and his representatives, employees, agents etc. from dispossessing the plaintiffs without due process of law from the schedule property and also from interfering in the peaceful possession and from conducting the unit for manufacturing of bricks in the schedule property and for costs.

Today, when the matter was called, the plaintiff was called absent and there was no representation on their behalf. It is pertinent to note that this is not the first hearing. On earlier occasions, this Court has granted sufficient opportunities to the plaintiff to take necessary steps to prosecute the suit. However, no effective action has been taken so far. Such prolonged inaction on the part of the plaintiff not only reflects a lack of diligence but also contributes to the mounting pendency of cases before the Court. Litigants are expected to prosecute their cases with due care and avoid causing unnecessary delay, as pendency adversely impacts the timely dispensation of justice. In these circumstances, the continued absence and lack of progress leave no reason to keep the matter pending any further. Accordingly, the suit is dismissed for non-prosecution.

Pronounced by me in the open court this the 17th day of November – 2025.
