... Respondent

This petition came up before me today for final hearing in the presence of Tr.N.Gopi B.A.,B.L., the Learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr.R.Suresh the learned APP appearing for the respondent and materials available, this court passes the following....

ORDER

The petitioner has filed this application under section 480 BNS seeking bail for the offence under section 191(2), 191(3), 126(2), 296(b), 131, 351(3) BNS Act.

2. The petitioner/accused is in judicial custody for the past 7 days from 15.08.2024. The petitioner/accused is innocent and he has not committed any offences as alleged. The petitioner/accused is a law abiding citizen the petitioner is a man of means, he will not abscond in due process of law. The petitioner/accused is prepared to furnish substantial sureties to his due appearance and ready to obey the court order. Therefore, he seeks to release the petitioner on bail.

3. Notice given. Respondent police stating that History sheet also maintained against the accused. If the accused is released on bail he may abscond and he will not come during trial and he may commit the similar offence repeatedly in future. Hence strongly oppose to release the accused on bail. Petition may be dismissed.

4. Heard, records carefully perused. The petitioner/accused is in Judicial custody for the past 7 days from 15.08.2024. The accused has previous cases and the accused has a history sheet. There is a possibility of committing further offence. Hence considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the seriousness of the allegations and the period of incarceration and in the interest of the justice this court is not inclined to grant bail to the accused.

In the result this petition is dismissed.
