Cr. No.120/2026

Petition u/s.483 BNSS is filed to grant bail to the petitioner.

This Petition has come up for final hearing before this court today, in the presence of Thiru.S.D.Manthira Esakki Muthu Advocate for the petitioner and in the presence of the learned Public Prosecutor for prosecution.

Heard both side.

ORDER

The petitioner is alleged to have committed offences on 12.03.2026 u/s.336(1), 296(b), 76, 115(1), 109(1), 351(3) of BNS. The petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 12.03.2026.

The case of the prosecution is that, the petitioner abused the de-facto complainant with filthy languages, assaulted with criminal force with an intention to disrobe her, caused injuries to the de-facto complainant, criminally intimidated her and also committed forgery.

The learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that, the petitioner is an innocent and not at all committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 12.03.2026 for the past 86 days and due to family dispute and personal vengeance false case has been registered and that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish sufficient sureties for his release on bail and that therefore, the petitioner may be enlarged on bail.

The learned Public Prosecutor has raised strong objection to release the petitioner on bail by stating that, the complainant is a house wife and on 12.03.2026 morning, when she was alone in her house, the petitioner trespassed into her house, tried to misbehave with her forcibly. Since the complainant shouted, the petitioner spoke abusive words, attacked with hands and cut her with Aruval, threatened and went away and further stated that the injured was discharged from the hospital.

The petitioner is in judicial custody for the past 86 days. The injured person was discharged from the hospital. The learned Public Prosecutor has not raised any serious objection. Hence, considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

i) The petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on executing a bond for Rs.10,000/- with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Srivaikundam, iv) And if the petitioner, thereafter abscond, a fresh F.I.R may be registered against the petitioner u/s.269 of BNS.
