Cr. No.504/2026

Petition u/s.483 BNSS is filed to grant bail to the petitioner.

This Petition has come up for final hearing before this court today, in the presence of Ms. I.Durka Sankari, Advocate for the petitioner and in the presence of the learned Public Prosecutor for prosecution.

Heard both side.

ORDER

The petitioner is alleged to have committed offences on 25.04.2026 u/s.118(1), 296(b), 351(3) of BNS and 3 of TNPP(D&L) Act. The petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 25.04.2026.

The case of the prosecution is that, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant with filthy words, attacked him and caused injuries to him and made criminal intimidation against the defacto complainant and also damaged the property belongs to the defacto complainant.

The learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that, the petitioner is an innocent and not at all committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 25.04.2026 for the past 42 days and the co-accused has been granted bail in Cr.M.P. No.2491/2026 dated 20.05.2026 and that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish sufficient sureties for his release on bail and that therefore, the petitioner may be enlarged on bail.

The learned Public Prosecutor has raised strong objection to release the petitioner on bail by stating that, totally two accused in this case and this petitioner is the 2nd accused and that the complainant is a mason and the accused persons are from the same area and they were fighting with a persons and the complainant supported another persons, due to that, accused persons quarreled with the complainant, spoke abusive words, attacked with Aruval, damaged the two wheeler, threatened and went away and further stated the injured was discharged from hospital and the damage value is Rs.10,000/-

The petitioner is in custody for the past 42 days. The injured was discharged from the hospital. The learned Public prosecutor has not raised any serious objection. Hence, considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

i) The petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on executing a bond for Rs.10,000/- with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Thoothukudi, ii) The petitioner shall deposit cash security of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five thousand only) before the Judicial Magistrate No.I, Thoothukudi and the de-facto complainant is permitted to withdraw the amount on filing necessary memo before the concerned court, iii) The petitioner shall appear and sign before the respondent police station daily at 10.00 A.M from the date of release until further orders, iv) If the petitioner breaches any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed by the said officer as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji .vs. State of Kerala (2005 AIRSCW 5560),

v) And if the petitioner, thereafter abscond, a fresh F.I.R may be registered against the petitioner u/s.269 of BNS.

Pronounced by me in the Open Court this the 05th day of June 2026.

Principal Sessions Judge, Thoothukudi.
