Cr. No. 146/2026

...Respondent / Complainant

Petition u/s.482 BNSS is filed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

This Petition has come up for final hearing before this court today, in the presence of Thiru. S.Madasamy, Advocate for the petitioner and in presences of the learned Public Prosecutor for prosecution.

Heard both side.

O R D E R

The petitioner is alleged to have committed offences on 26.04.2026 u/ss. 296(b), 109(1), 351(3) of BNS Act.

The case of the prosecution is that, the petitioner along with co-accused have abused the de-facto complainant with filthy language and attempted to murder him with aruval and thereby caused injuries to him and also made criminal intimidation against him.

The learned Counsel for the petitioner has submitted that, the petitioner is an innocent and not at all committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and that totally 2 accused persons in this case and this petitioner is A1 and the injured was discharged from hospital and that the petitioner has no previous case and this is the 2nd anticipatory bail application and the earlier application was allowed by this court in Cr.M.P. No.2400/2026 dated 13.05.2026 and due to the ill health of the petitioner, he was not able to comply the condition and therefore the said order was dismissed automatically and that the co-accused A2 was already on anticipatory bail by this court in Cr.M.P. No.2499/2026 dated 20.05.2026 and that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish sufficient sureties for his release on anticipatory bail and that therefore, the petitioner may be enlarged on anticipatory bail.

The learned Public Prosecutor has raised strong objection to release the petitioner on anticipatory bail by stating that, totally 2 accused in this case and this petitioner is the 1st accused and that the defacto complainant is a driver and also working as a security in a building site and that one week prior to the occurrence, the accused drove his bike in a rash and negligent manner and hence, the defacto complainant and the public were warned him, due to which, the accused got angry and on the date of occurrence when the defacto complainant was in the occurrence place, the accused came there and quarreled with him and attacked him with knife and also threatened him and went away and further stated that the injured was discharged from hospital and the petitioner has no previous case.

Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that, already anticipatory bail granted to this petitioner and due to his ill health, the petitioner failed to comply the condition and no serious objection raised by the learned Public Prosecutor, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

i) In the event of arrest or on surrender, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail on executing a bond for Rs.10,000/- with two sureties each for alike sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Thoothukudi, ii) The petitioner shall abide by the conditions stipulated u/s.482 (2) (i), (ii) and (iii) of BNSS, iii) The petitioner shall appear and sign before the respondent police station daily at 10.00 A.M from the date of release until further Orders,

iv) The petitioner shall surrender before the Judicial Magistrate within one week from the date of this order, failing which, the anticipatory bail granted to the petitioner shall stand dismissed automatically,

v) If the petitioner breaches any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed by the said officer as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji .vs. State of Kerala (2005 AIRSCW 5560), vi) And if the petitioner, thereafter abscond, a fresh F.I.R may be registered against the petitioner u/s.269 of BNS.

Pronounced by me in the Open Court this the 17th day of June 2026.

Principal Sessions Judge, Thoothukudi.
