This Petition has come up for final hearing before this court today, in the presence of Thiru.J.Prakash Advocate for the petitioner and in presences of the learned Public Prosecutor for prosecution.

Heard both side.

ORDER

The petitioner is alleged to have committed offences on 03.06.2026 u/s. 296(b), 118(1), 351(3) of BNS.

The case of the prosecution is that, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant with filthy language, attacked him and caused injuries to him and also made criminal intimidation against him.

The learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that, the petitioner is an innocent and not at all committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and that nobody sustained injury and that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish sufficient sureties for his release on anticipatory bail and that therefore, the petitioner may be enlarged on anticipatory bail.

The learned Public Prosecutor has raised strong objection to release the petitioner on anticipatory bail by stating that, the complainant and the petitioner are having money dispute, due to that, on 03.06.2026, at about 07.00 p.m. when the complainant was in his fish shop, the petitioner quarreled with the complainant, spoke abusive words, attacked with hands and also tried to kill him and further stated that no previous case against this petitioner and the injured person is taking treatment as an out patient.

The injured person is taking treatment as an outpatient and no previous case against this petitioner. The learned Public prosecutor has not raised any serious objection. Hence, considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

i) In the event of arrest or on surrender, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail on executing a bond for Rs.10,000/- with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Tiruchendur,
