Cr. No.226/2026

...Respondent / Complainant

Petition u/s.483 BNSS is filed to grant bail to the petitioner.

This Petition has come up for final hearing before this court today, in the presence of Thiru.R.Rajasudalai, Advocate for the petitioner and the Inspector of Police, Nalatinpudur P.S. for respondent.

Heard both side.

ORDER

The petitioner is alleged to have committed offences on 23.06.2026 u/s.118(1), 296(b), 329(4), 351(3) of BNS and Section 3 of TNPPDL Act and Section 4 of TNPHW Act. The petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 28.06.2026.

The case of the prosecution is that, the petitioner along with the co-accused have trespassed into the de-facto complainant's house, abused with filthy language, assaulted and also criminally intimidated the de-facto complainant.

The learned Counsel for the petitioner has submitted that, the petitioner is an innocent and not at all committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and the petitioner is in judicial custody from 28.06.2026 for the past 6 days and in fact this petitioner is the sister's son of the de-facto complainant and the petitioner is in illicit relationship with one Esther Rani, who is the wife of the de-facto complainant's son and hence false case has been registered and that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish sufficient sureties for his release on bail and that therefore, the petitioner may be enlarged on bail.

The Inspector of Police, Nalatinpudur police station has appeared before this court and stated that the damage value is Rs.10,000/- and no previous case against this petitioner.

Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that, no previous case against this petitioner and no serious objection on the respondent side, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

i) The petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on executing a bond for Rs.10,000/- with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Kovilpatti, ii) The petitioner shall deposit cash security of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only) before the Judicial Magistrate Court No.I, Kovilpatti and the de-facto complainant is permitted to withdraw the amount on filing necessary memo before the concerned court.

iii) The petitioner shall appear and sign before the respondent police station daily at 10.00 A.M from the date of release for a period of 30 days, iv) If the petitioner breaches any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed by the said officer as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji .vs. State of Kerala (2005 AIRSCW 5560),

v) And if the petitioner, thereafter abscond, a fresh F.I.R may be registered against the petitioner u/s.269 of BNS.

Pronounced by me in the Open Court this the 03rd day of July 2026.

Principal Sessions Judge, Thoothukudi.
