Cr. No.145/2026

Petition u/s.483 BNSS is filed to grant bail to the petitioner.

This Petition has come up for final hearing before this court today, in the presence of Thiru.S.Karuppasamy, Advocate for the petitioner and the learned Public Prosecutor for prosecution.

Heard both side.

ORDER

The petitioner is alleged to have committed offences on 13.04.2026 u/s.49, 303(2) of BNS and Section 3 of TNPPDL Act. The petitioner were arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 12.07.2026.

The case of the prosecution is that, the petitioner along with the co-accused went to the de-facto complainant's house, stolen some household articles and also damaged the house hold articles.

The learned Counsel for the petitioner has submitted that, the petitioner is an innocent and not at all committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 12.07.2026 for the past 9 days and totally three accused in this case and this petitioner is the 1st accused and that the de-facto complainant is the mother of this accused and that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish sufficient sureties for his release on bail and that therefore, the petitioner may be enlarged on bail.

The learned Public Prosecutor has raised strong objection to grant bail to the petitioner by stating that, the de-facto complainant is the mother of this petitioner and due to civil dispute, this petitioner has damaged the window, door, wall and roof tiles to the value of Rs.50,000/- and further stated that no previous case against this petitioner.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that, the petitioner is in judicial custody for the past 9 days and since there is no serious objection on the respondent side, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

- i) The petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on executing a bond for Rs.10,000/- with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Srivaikundam.
- ii) The petitioner shall deposit cash security of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees Fifty thousand only) before the Judicial Magistrate Court No.II, Srivaikundam (the amount, if deposited, shall be kept by the above Judicial Magistrate Court in Criminal Court Deposit a/c. till the disposal of the case), iii) The petitioner shall appear and sign before the respondent police station daily at 10.00 A.M., from the date of release for a period of 30 days, iv) If the petitioner breaches any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed by the said officer as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji .vs. State of Kerala (2005 AIR SCW 5560),

v) And if the petitioner, thereafter abscond, a fresh F.I.R may be registered against the petitioner u/s.269 of BNS.

Pronounced by me in the Open Court this the 20th day of July 2026.
