Cr. No. 570/2026

Petition u/s.482 BNSS is filed to grant anticipatory bail to petitioners.

This Petition has come up for final hearing before this court today, in the presence of Thiru.J.Prakash Advocate for petitioners and the learned Public Prosecutor for prosecution.

Heard both side.

ORDER

The petitioner is alleged to have committed offences on 23.06.2026 u/s. 296(b), 115(2), 351(3) of BNS and Section 4 of TNPHW Act.

The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with co-accused have abused the de-facto complainant who is a lady with filthy language, assaulted and caused injuries, threatened with dire consequences and thereby harassed the de-facto complainant.

The learned Counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is an innocent and not at all committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and that the de-facto complainant is the mother in law of the 1st petitioner and the 2nd petitioner is the mother of the 1st petitioner and due to family dispute false case has been registered and that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish sufficient sureties for his release on anticipatory bail and that therefore, the petitioner may be enlarged on anticipatory bail.

The learned Public Prosecutor even though has raised strong objection to release the petitioner on anticipatory bail he fairly concedes that, the injured person was discharged from the hospital and no previous case against this petitioner.

The injured person was discharged from the hospital. No previous case against this petitioner. The learned Public Prosecutor has not raised any serious objection. Hence, considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

i) In the event of arrest or on surrender, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail on executing a bond for Rs.10,000/- with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.III, Thoothukudi,
