Cr. No.279/2026

Petition u/s.483 BNSS is filed to grant bail to the petitioner.

This Petition has come up for final hearing before this court today, in the presence of Thiru.P.Madasamy Advocate for the petitioner and the learned Public Prosecutor for prosecution.

Heard both side.

ORDER

The petitioner is alleged to have committed offences on 12.07.2026 u/s.296(b), 118(1), 351(3) of BNS and Section 3 of TNPPDL Act. The petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 14.07.2026.

The case of the prosecution is that, the petitioner has abused the de-facto complainant with filthy language, assaulted, criminally intimidated the de-facto complainant and also damaged the roof tiles.

The learned Counsel for the petitioner has submitted that, the petitioner is an innocent and not at all committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 14.07.2026 for the past 8 days and this petitioner is in no way connected to this case and false case has been foisted against this petitioner and that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish sufficient sureties for his release on bail and that therefore, the petitioner may be enlarged on bail.

The learned Public Prosecutor has raised strong objection to release the petitioner on bail by stating that, this petitioner is a HS rowdy and having 11 previous cases and the investigation in this case is still pending.

Considering the nature and gravity of the offence and the criminal antecedents of the petitioner and since the investigation is in the earlier stage, if this petitioner is enlarged on bail, there is every possibility of tampering the witnesses and hampering the investigation, this court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

In the result, this petition is hereby dismissed.

Pronounced by me in the Open Court this the 21st day of July 2026.

Principal Sessions Judge,
Thoothukudi.
