The petitioner is alleged to have committed offences on 06.07.2026 u/s.296(b), 351(3) BNS, Section 4 of TNPHW Act and Section 3 of TNPPDL Act. The petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 07.07.2026.

The case of the prosecution is that, the petitioner has abused the de-facto complainant who is a lady with filthy language, criminally intimidated her and also damaged the de-facto complainant's house sheet to the value of Rs.2,000/- and thereby harassed the de-facto complainant.

The learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that, the petitioner is an innocent and not at all committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 07.07.2026 for the past 14 days and nobody sustained injury in the occurrence and the petitioner is ready to deposit the damage amount and that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish sufficient sureties for his release on bail and that therefore, the petitioner may be enlarged on bail.

The learned Public Prosecutor has raised strong objection to release the petitioner on bail by stating that, the petitioner has damaged the roof tiles of de-facto complainant to the value of Rs.2,000/- and nobody sustained injury in the occurrence.
