Cr. No.491/2026

...Respondent / Complainant

Petition u/s.483 BNSS is filed to grant bail to the petitioner.

This Petition has come up for final hearing before this court today, in the presence of Thiru.P.Ramesh Advocate for the petitioner and the learned Public Prosecutor for prosecution.

Heard both side.

ORDER

The petitioner is alleged to have committed offences on 07.07.2026 u/s.109(1), 296(b), 351(3) BNS. The petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 08.07.2026.

The case of the prosecution is that, the petitioner along with other accused abused the de-facto complainant with filthy languages, attempted to murder with knife and also threatened with dire consequences.

The learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that, the petitioner is an innocent and not at all committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 08.07.2026 for the past 20 days and that one of the co-accused was released by the Hon'ble High court and another co-accused was enlarged on bail by this court and nobody has sustained injury and that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish sufficient sureties for his release on bail and that therefore, the petitioner may be enlarged on bail.

The learned Public Prosecutor has raised strong objection to release the petitioner on bail by stating that, this petitioner is having 10 previous cases and the investigation is pending.

Considering the nature and gravity of the offence and the criminal antecedents of the petitioner and since the investigation is still pending, if the petitioner is enlarged on bail, there is every possibility of tampering the witnesses and hampering the investigation, this court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

In the result, this petition stands dismissed.

Pronounced by me in the Open Court this the 27th day of July 2026.

Principal Sessions Judge,
Thoothukudi.
