Cr. No. 183/2026

...Respondent / Complainant

Petition u/s.482 BNSS is filed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

This Petition has come up for final hearing before this court today, in the presence of Thiru.S.Marieswaran, Advocate for the petitioner and the learned Public Prosecutor for prosecution.

Heard both side.

ORDER

The petitioner is alleged to have committed offences on 16.05.2026 u/s.296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 351(2) of BNS.

The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with the co-accused have abused the de-facto complainant with filthy language, assaulted and caused injuries and also criminally intimidated the de-facto complainant.

The learned Counsel for the petitioner has submitted that petitioner is an innocent and not at all committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and in fact that, the de-facto complainant and the petitioner are neighbours and due to some wordy altercation false case has been registered and that the co-accused was already granted bail by this court in Cr.M.P. No.3502/2026 dated 08.07.2026 and this is the 2nd anticipatory bail application and the earlier application was dismissed by this court in Cr.M.P. No.3502/2026 dated 08.07.2026 and that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish sufficient sureties for his release on anticipatory bail and that therefore, the petitioner may be enlarged on anticipatory bail.

The learned Public Prosecutor has raised strong objection to grant bail to the petitioner stating that, totally three accused in this case and this petitioner is the 1st accused and that, the de-facto complainant and the accused persons are having dispute regarding cutting of trees. The injured person was discharged from the hospital.

The injured person was discharged from the hospital. This is the 2nd anticipatory bail application and the earlier application was dismissed on 08.07.2026. The learned Public Prosecutor has not raised any serious objection. Hence, considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions :

i) In the event of arrest or on surrender, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail on executing a bond for Rs.10,000/- with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Srivaikundam, ii) The petitioner shall abide by the conditions stipulated u/s.482 (2) (i), (ii) and (iii) of BNSS, iii) The petitioner shall appear and sign before the respondent police station daily at 10.00 A.M from the date of release for a period of 30 days,

iv) The petitioner shall surrender before Judicial Magistrate within 15 days from the date of this order, failing which, the anticipatory bail granted to the petitioner shall stand dismissed automatically,

v) If the petitioner breaches any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed by the said officer as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji .vs. State of Kerala (2005 AIR SCW 5560), vi) And if the petitioner, thereafter abscond, a fresh F.I.R may be registered against the petitioner u/s.269 of BNS.

Pronounced by me in the Open Court this the 20th day of July 2026.

Principal Sessions Judge, Thoothukudi.
