

54 CC NI ACT / 5327/2025 M/S V N CREDITS LTD Vs. SONU

15.11.2025

Proceedings conducted online through VC using Cisco Webex as well as through Hybrid Mode.

Present : Mr. Shubham Yadav, Ld. counsel for the complainant through V.C.

In the light of the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in Sanjabij Tari Vs. Kishore S. Borcar & Anr. (2025), issuance notice to the proposed accused is dispensed with.

The complaint appears to be well within the limitation period. Upon consideration of the complaint, documents filed and examination of complainant, prima facie there appears to be sufficient ground to proceed against the accused u/s. 138 N.I. Act. I hereby take cognizance of the offence punishable u/s. 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881.

Let the accused be summoned on filing of PF and the META Data form within 15 days through RC-AD, Speed Post/approved courier services and Whatsapp/Email returnable on the NDOH.

Endorsement be made to the effect that offence punishable under section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 is compoundable by virtue of section 147 thereof, and should the Accused disburse/deposit the cheque amount on or before the first date of hearing, the complaint may be compounded in terms of ratio of judgment in the case of Damodar S. Prabhu Vs. Sayed Babalal H. (2010) 5 SCC 663.

Ahlmad is directed to mention the official email ID and video conferencing link of this Court on the summons.

Put up for appearance of the accused on 05.04.2026.

The order be uploaded as per rules.
