It is found that there is substantial delay in lodging the FIR.

There is no prima facie report by the IO to ascertain whether there exist a prima facie case for proceeding.

The explanation as provided is evasive and does not disclose whether the de facto complainant was prevented by situation beyond his / her control to agitate before the appropriate authority as envisaged in law.

More so, on comprehensive perusal of the FIR, CD & LCR. I could not locate the element of section 108 BNSS Act as no such document is forthcoming.

Conditions :

- 1) The accused person/s shall make himself/herself available by meeting the IO as and when called for by providing
