...Respondent/Complainant

This petition is coming before me for hearing today in the presence of Thiru.M.Dilip learned counsel for the petitioner, the learned Public Prosecutor for the respondent and, after hearing both sides, this court, delivered the following:

O R D E R

This is a petition for bail u/s 483 of BNSS for the alleged offences u/s. 341, 294(b), 395, 397 of IPC.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner with support of the petition averments submitted that the petitioner was remanded to judicial custody on 25.02.2026 and he is in custody for the past 27 days. It is a jumped bail. The petitioner is alleged to have committed an offence of u/s 341, 294(b), 395, 397 of IPC. and the case in S.C.No.77 of 2025 was pending before this court. Due to his non appearance NBW issued as against the petitioner on 03.09.2025 and on the basis of warrant, the petitioner was remanded to judicial custody on 25.02.2026. The petitioner is having permanent residence and he is ready to furnish sufficient sureties to ensure his regular attendance and abide by any condition imposed by this Court, and prays that the petitioner may be granted bail.

3. On notice, the learned Public Prosecutor filed his objection and submitted that there are one previous case is pending as against the petitioner and if the petitioner enlarged on bail, he may abscond from the clutches of law, which will delay the disposal of the case, therefore, he strongly objected to grant bail.

4. Heard both sides. Records perused. The alleged offences charged against the petitioner for the offence u/s 341, 294(b), 395, 397 of IPC.. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the case was arrayed in S.C.No.77 of 2025 before this court now the case is posted for engaging counsel for the petitioner/A2. The petitioner was not appeared before this court on 03.09.2025 and thereafter, this court issued N.B.W. against the petitioner and on the basis of warrant the petitioner was arrested and he is in judicial custody for the past 27 days and he seeks bail to the petitioner. The learned Public Prosecutor filed his objection submitted that if the petitioner enlarged on bail, he may abscond from the clutches of law, which will delay the disposal of the case and strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the incarceration of 27 days on jumped bail, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:-

5. In the result, petition is allowed;

(a) The petitioner is ordered to be enlarged on bail on executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/-, along with two sureties for the like sum each to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate No.V, Vellore;

(b) The petitioner shall appear and sign before the Principal District and Sessions Court, Vellore daily at 10.30 AM on all working days until further orders from the next day of execution of bond before the Magistrate Court. Thereafter, he can file a modification petition after 30 days of conditions complied;

(c) The sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and produce copy of their Aadhar card or Bank Pass Book to ensure their identity;

(d) The petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness during trial;

(e) The petitioner shall not abscond during trial;

(f) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Principal District and Sessions court, Vellore / Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Principal District and Sessions court, Vellore / Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji v. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560] and;

(g) If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 BNS.

Pronounced by me in Open Court, this the 23rd day of March, 2026.
