Crime No.31 of 2026.

...Respondent/Complainant

This petition is coming before me for hearing today in the presence of Thiru J.Mahendrarvarman, learned counsel for the petitioner, and the Inspector of Police, Vellore North Crime P.S, appeared. After hearing the petitioner's counsel and perusal of reply submitted by the concerned police, this court, delivered the following:

ORDER

This is a petition for bail u/s 483 of BNSS for the alleged offences u/s. 305, 331(4) of BNS 2023.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner with support of the petition averments submitted that the petitioner was remanded to judicial custody on 18.05.2026 and he is in custody for the past 46 days and the case was registered against the petitioner based on the false complaint given by the defacto complainant. The petitioner is innocent and no way connected with the offences and that the petitioner is having permanent residence and he is ready to furnish sufficient sureties to ensure his regular attendance and abide by any condition imposed by this Court, and prays that the petitioner may be granted bail.

3. The Inspector of Police, Vellore North Crime P.S., appeared and filed his objection and submitted that there are totally four accused in this case and the petitioner is arrayed as A2 and there are eight previous cases are pending as against the petitioner and he is a History Sheeted Rowdy in H.S.No.08 of 2024 and the investigation is going on and if the petitioner is released on bail, he will commit the same kind of offence and hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. Heard the petitioner's side. Records perused. On perusal of FIR, it reveals that the defacto complainant, a transgender woman, had locked her rented house on 15.05.2026 after performing a pooja and returned to her residence. When she visited the house again on 17.05.2026 at about 6.00 p.m., she found that the rear door had been broken open and the bureau and drawer had been damaged. It is alleged that cash of about Rs.3,000/- and approximately 30 kilograms of brass articles were found missing. Hence, the present case. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and the petitioner is in judicial custody for the past 46 days and seeks bail to the petitioner. On perusal of reply given by the Inspector of Police, it reveals that there are eight previous cases are pending as against the petitioner and he is a History Sheeted Rowdy in H.S.No.08 of 2024. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of offence alleged to have been committed by the petitioner/accused and previous antecedent of the petitioner, apart from that the petitioner is a History Sheeted rowdy and the investigation is going on and at this stage this court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. In the result, this petition is dismissed.

Pronounced by me in Open Court, this the 02nd day of July, 2026.
