Crime No.115 of 2026.

...Respondent/Complainant

This petition is coming before me for hearing today in the presence of Thiru. J.Mahendrarvarman, learned counsel for the petitioners, the Inspector of Police, appeared. After hearing the petitioners' counsel and perusal of reply submitted by the concerned police, this court, delivered the following:

O R D E R

This is a petition for anticipatory bail u/s 482 of BNSS 2023 for the alleged offences u/s 191(2), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 351(3) of BNS 2023.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioners with support of the petition averments submitted that the above case was registered on the basis of false complaint given by the defacto complainant stating that on 22.06.2026 there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and others and the defacto complainant. The injured was discharged from the hospital. The petitioners are innocents and they are no way connected with the case and there is no previous case as against them and they are ready to furnish sufficient sureties to ensure their regular attendance and abide by any condition imposed by this Court, and prays that the petitioners may be granted bail.

3. The Inspector of Police, Ariyur P.S., appeared and filed his objection and orally submitted that the injured was discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case is pending as against the petitioners and the case in counter case in Cr.No.193 of 2026 at Bagayam P.S. and the investigation is going on and he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. Heard the petitioners' side. Records perused. On perusal of the FIR, it reveals that on 23.06.2026 at about 2.30 a.m., the petitioner/A2, the petitioner/A3 and the other accused allegedly came to the house of the defacto complainant, abused him in filthy language over an earlier family dispute, dragged him out by holding his shirt, threw him to the ground and assaulted him with hands and legs. It is further alleged that the co-accused/A1 Pattabi assaulted the defacto complainant with an iron rod on his face, back and other parts of the body, causing injuries, and thereafter all the accused criminally intimidated him with dire consequences before leaving the place. Hence, the present case. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are falsely implicated in this case and the injured was discharged from the hospital and seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners. On perusal of reply given by the Inspector of Police, it reveals that the injured was discharged from the hospital and the case in counter case in Cr.No.193 of 2026 at Bagayam P.S. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, nature of offence, injured was discharged from the hospital and the stage of investigation, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners subject to the following conditions.

5. In the result, this petition is allowed:-

(a) The petitioners shall, in the event of their arrest by the respondent police or surrender before the Judicial Magistrate I, Vellore within 15 days from today, be enlarged on bail on his executing a bond for Rs.10,000/- each, with two sureties for like sum each to the satisfaction of the above said Magistrate;

State of Kerala* [(2005) AIR SCW 5560] and;
