Cr. No. 231 of 2026.

...Respondent/Complainant

This petition is coming before me for hearing today in the presence of Thiru. D.Vinothkumar, learned counsel for the petitioner, the learned Public Prosecutor for the respondent and, after hearing both sides, this court, delivered the following:

O R D E R

This is a petition for bail u/s 483 of BNSS for the alleged offences u/s. 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 351(3) @ 191(2), 191(3), 126(2), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 351(3), 109 of BNS 2023.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner with support of the petition averments submitted that the petitioner was remanded to judicial custody on 24.06.2026 and he is in custody for the past 14 days and the case was registered against the petitioner based on the false complaint given by the defacto complainant stating that due to previous enmity there was a wordy quarrel aroused between the petitioner and others and the defacto complainant and ended in assault. The petitioner is innocent and no way connected with the offences and that the petitioner is having permanent residence and he is ready to furnish sufficient sureties to ensure his regular attendance and abide by any condition imposed by this Court, and prays that the petitioner may be granted bail.

3. On notice, the learned Public Prosecutor submitted that there are totally six accused in this case and the petitioner is arrayed as A2 and there is one previous case is pending as against the petitioner and the injured was discharged from the hospital and the investigation is going on and if the petitioner is released on bail, he will commit the same kind of offence and hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. Heard both sides. Records perused. On perusal of FIR, it reveals that on 23.06.2026 at about 10.00 p.m., while the defacto complainant was standing near an AR Chicken Stall at New Fish Market, Vellore, the co-accused/A1, along with the other accused, picked up a quarrel with the defacto complainant in connection with an earlier enmity involving his cousin. It is alleged that the co-accused/A1 attacked the defacto complainant with a knife, while the other accused assaulted him with an iron rod. It is further alleged that the petitioner/A2 (Abdul Ajis), along with the co-accused, kicked the defacto complainant after he fell down and criminally intimidated him with dire consequences before fleeing from the scene. Hence, the present case. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and the co accused/A6 was already released on bail by the Hon'ble High Court of Madras in Crl.O.P.No.17106 of 2026, dated 06.07.2026 and the petitioner is in judicial custody for the past 14 days and seeks bail to the petitioner. On the other hand, the learned Public Prosecutor filed his objection and submitted that there is one previous case is pending as against the petitioner and the injured was discharged from the hospital. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of offence alleged to have been committed by the petitioner/accused and strong objection placed on the side of the prosecution and previous antecedent of the petitioner and the investigation is going on and at this stage this court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. In the result, this petition is dismissed.

Pronounced by me in Open Court, this the 07th day of July, 2026.
