.... Respondent/Judgment Debtor

This Execution Petition came up for final hearing on 06.04.2026 in the presence of Thiru.A.Suresh Babu, the Authorized Representative for the Petitioner and Thiru.Dr.G.Devaraj, the Advocate for the respondent. Upon hearing the arguments, upon perusing the material case records and having stood over for consideration till this date, this Court delivered the following:-

ORDER

This execution petition is filed by the petitioner to direct the respondent to pay the order amount with interest amount totalling to Rs.17,223/- in default to order for attachment and sale of the property belonging to the respondent for the realization of the award amount.

1. Petition averments in-brief:-

The petitioner preferred a C.P.No.44/2023 on the file of this court and obtained an order in his favour on 07.08.2024 for a sum of Rs.8,750/- towards Amma Pension Scheme. Based on the order the respondent's management was liable to pay the above said amount to the petitioner. Since the respondent's management failed to pay the amount as per the order of this court, the petitioner has filed this present Execution Petition for attachment and sale of the property belonging to the respondent.

2. Counter averments in-brief:-

The respondent in his counter admitted the order passed in C.P.No.44/2023 in favour of the petitioner on 07.08.2024. The respondent further stated that the petitioner is claiming 10 days salary, but the same had already been disbursed to the petitioner in the year 1985, when the respondent management had computerized the salary disbursements. Therefore, he contended that the petitioner is not entitled for 10 days salary and he requested for the dismissal of the petition.

3. Point for consideration:-

Whether this execution petition is liable to be allowed or not?

After hearing both the counsels, after perusing the petition and counter filed by the respective parties and other relevant records, this court comes to know that the petitioner has filed this execution application to realise the Computation Petition order amount passed in favour of him by this court towards Amma Pension Scheme.

The Petitioner/Decree Holder has filed the above computation petition claiming 10 days salary and his contribution amount towards Amma Pension Scheme. This court on merits held that the petitioner had already received 10 days' salary in advance in the year 1985, when the respondent corporation had computerized the disbursal of salary to its employees. Therefore this court held that the petitioner is entitled only for the amount under Amma Pension Scheme. To claim that amount alone this Execution Petition has been filed.

This court further finds that, the averments mentioned in the counter is not relevant to the present execution petition and till date the Judgement Debtor has not chosen to prefer any appeal against the order passed by this court in the computation petition. Under such circumstances the Judgement Debtor is liable to pay the amount as ordered by this court. Since the Judgement Debtor failed to pay the amount the Decree Holder has filed the present Execution petition. Hence, this court finds no merits in the counter filed by the respondent herein. Therefore, this petition is allowed and consequently attachment is ordered.

‘Issue fresh attachment batta, attach by 04.05.2026’.

Dictated to the Steno-Typist, typed directly in the Computer, corrected and pronounced by me in the Open Court, on this the 15th day of April, 2026.
