Monday, this the 30th Day of September – 2024

I.A.No. 06 of 2024
In
O.S.No. 139 of 2022
(CNR.No.TNVL23-000185-2022)

S.Jothimary, Rep as General Power of Attorney Agent
of S.Devakkan

.....Petitioner/Plaintiff

-Vs-

M.Dass

...Respondent/Defendant

This petition has come up today before this Court for orders, and upon hearing the enquiry of Thiru. G.Seralathan, the Counsel for the Petitioner, and Respondent was called absent and set ex-parte on 28.08.2024, and upon perusing the petition, and the case records, and having stood over for consideration till this date, this Court delivers the following:-

ORDER

This petition has been filed by the petitioner/plaintiff under Order 6 Rule 17 of Civil Procedure Code, to amend the Plaint.

Records perused. This petition has been filed by the plaintiff's Power of Agent stating that instead of her principal name in the short and long and cause title, she mentioned her name, and already she was permitted for representing capacity in IA.1/2022 before this court, and prayed to allow her to amend the plaint as per the particulars mentioned in the petition. Notice served on the respondent/defendant but he failed to file counter that too. Even after granting sufficient times and he was set exparte.

Considering the above all facts and the petition mentioned proposed amendment particulars, this court is of the view that it will not going to change the nature of suit (or) character and the said amendment is necessary for proper adjudication of the plaint, and moreover, no prejudice will be caused to the respondent/defendant if the proposed amendment is ordered. Hence, in the interest of justice, this court is inclined to permit the petitioner/plaintiff to amend the plaint as per the present petition mentioned amendment particulars. In the result, this petition is allowed. No costs.

Pronounced by me in the open court, this the 30th day of September 2024.
