Petition filed u/s.483 B.N.S.S. dated 09.03.2026 to release the accused on bail.

This petition is coming on this day before me for hearing in the presence of Thiru.P.Ramesh, Advocate for the Petitioner and Thiru.T.S.Subramanian, Public Prosecutor for the state, and upon perusing both side contentions, this court delivered the following

ORDER

Heard both sides. Perused both side contentions. The petitioner/accused is seeking bail for the offences alleged to have been committed by him under sections 3(a) of Explosive Substances Act 1908 and sections 115(2), 296(b), 329(4), 351(3) of B.N.S. The learned counsel for the petitioner stated that the petitioner is an innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case and he was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 27.02.2026 and he is in custody for the past 24 days and he is having permanent residence and he belongs to respectable family and he would neither abscond nor tamper any witnesses and he is ready to abide any condition to be imposed by this court and hence the petitioner may be released on bail.

The learned Public Prosecutor has represented that occurrence took place on 26.02.2026 and FIR was registered on the same day. Totally there are 2 accused involved in this case and both of them were arrested and remanded to judicial custody, and this petitioner is A2. The facts of the case is that on the occurrence day, while the complainant and his wife are working in the Tea Shop, the petitioners went to the shop and asked Tea, and when the same was refused by the complainant, the accused persons got enraged, abused them in filthy language and attacked him and his wife with hands and legs, and further they threatened them by throwing country made bomb on the road, hence he lodged a complaint. The learned Public Prosecutor further stated that no one sustained injuries in this case and no previous case is pending as against the petitioner and material part of the investigation is completed.

Considering all these and considering the representation made by the prosecution that no one sustained injuries in this case and no previous case is pending as against the petitioner and material part of the investigation is completed and considering the period of custody of the petitioner for the past 24 days and considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this court is inclined to allow this petition on the following condition:-

In the result, the petitioner/accused is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only) with two sureties for a like sum each to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate, Vikravandi and on condition that the petitioner shall appear and sign before the Respondent Police Station daily at 10.00 A.M. until further orders (including holidays) from the next day of execution of bond before the trial Court and on further conditions that,
