...Respondent/Complainant.

e-Petition filed u/s. 482 B.N.S.S. dated 10.03.2026 to release the accused on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest.

This petition is coming on this day before me for hearing in the presence of Thiru.P.R.Senthilkumar, Advocate for the Petitioner and Thiru.T.S.Subramanian, Public Prosecutor for the state, and upon perusing both side contentions, this court delivered the following...

ORDER

This e-petition has been filed by the petitioner u/s.482 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 seeking anticipatory bail for the offences alleged to have been committed by her under section 108 of B.N.S.

The learned counsel for the petitioner stated that the petitioner is an innocent and she has been falsely implicated in this offence, and co-accused namely A1 was already released on bail by the Hon'ble High Court of Madras in CrI.O.P.No.5862/2026 dated 06.03.2026, and the petitioner is ready to abide any condition to be imposed by this court and she would neither abscond nor tamper any witnesses and previous anticipatory bail application filed by the petitioner was dismissed by this court in CrI.M.P.No.704/2026 dated 23.02.2026. She is apprehending arrest in the hands of the respondent and prays to release her on Anticipatory bail.

The learned Public Prosecutor represented that incident said to have taken place on 05.02.2026 and FIR was registered on 06.02.2026. Totally there are 2 accused involved in this case, and A1 alone was arrested, and this petitioner is A2, she is the wife of the deceased. The complainant is the brother of the deceased. The facts of the case is that the petitioner (A2) is having illegal intimacy with A1 and when the husband of the petitioner scolded her, she threatened and induced him to commit suicide and due to the unbearable pain and suffering, he committed suicide by hanging. The learned Public Prosecutor further stated that investigation is still pending and previous anticipatory bail application filed by the petitioner was dismissed by this court and there is no change of circumstances and strongly opposed to release the petitioner on anticipatory bail.

Considered the submissions on both sides and perused the records. It is alleged that the petitioner (A2), who is the wife of the deceased is having illegal intimacy with A1 and hence, due to the unbearable pain and suffering, he committed suicide by hanging. The occurrence happened on 05.02.2026 and FIR was registered on 06.02.2026. It is stated that investigation is still pending, and previous anticipatory bail application filed by the petitioner was dismissed by this court and there is no change of circumstances. Totally there are 2 accused involved in this case, and A1 alone was arrested, and this petitioner is A2, she is still absconding. It is stated that co-accused namely A1 has been granted bail by the Hon'ble High Court of Madras, but the same cannot be a ground for seeking anticipatory bail to this petitioner, who is absconding for very long period. Considering these facts and considering the seriousness of the offence committed by the petitioner, which comes u/s.108 of B.N.S. and pendency of the investigation, this court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Hence, this application for anticipatory bail is dismissed.

In the result, this petition is dismissed.

Pronounced by me in open court this the 16th day of March 2026.

Principal Sessions Judge,
Villupuram.
