Principal Sessions Judge, Villupuram.(I/c)

Monday, the 23rd day of March 2026.

CMP.No.1080/2026

(Cr.No.90/2026, Vikravandi P.S., Judicial Magistrate, Vikravandi)

1. Kumar @ Kumarakrishnan, S/o. Padmanaban
2. Rajesh, S/o. Krishnamoorthi ...Petitioners/Accused.

/VS/

State by Inspector of Police,
Vikravandi P.S., ...Respondent/Complainant.

e-Petition filed u/s. 482 B.N.S.S. dated 11.03.2026 to release the accused on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest.

This petition is coming on this day before me for hearing in the presence of Thiru.B.Dhamodharan, Advocate for the Petitioners and Thiru.T.S.Subramanian, Public Prosecutor for the state, and upon perusing both side contentions, this court delivered the following:

ORDER

Heard both sides. Perused both side contentions. The petitioners/accused filed this e-petition seeking anticipatory bail for the offence alleged to have been committed by them under section 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 351(3) of BNS. The learned counsel for the petitioners stated that this case has been falsely foisted against them and already A2 was arrested and remanded and released on bail by the Judicial Magistrate, Vikravandi in CrI.M.P.No.336/2026 dated 05.03.2026 and they are ready to abide any conditions to be imposed by this court and if the petitioners are released on bail, they will neither abscond nor tamper the witnesses. They are apprehending arrest in the hands of the respondent and prays to release them on Anticipatory bail.

The Learned Public Prosecutor represented that the incident said to have taken place on 02.03.2026 and the FIR was registered on the same day and totally there are 3 accused involved in this case. A2 alone was arrested and remanded to judicial custody. The petitioners are A1, A3. Due to petty quarrel between the parties, on the occurrence day, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and attacked him with hand and stick. The learned Public Prosecutor further stated that the injured person has been treated only as out patient.

Considering all these and also taking note of the nature of the offence and considering the representation made by the prosecution that the injured person has been treated only as out patient and already A2 has been arrested and remanded and released on bail by the Judicial Magistrate, Vikravandi in CrI.M.P.No.336/2026 dated 05.03.2026, this court is inclined to allow this petition on the following condition:-

In the result, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of their arrest by the respondent police or in the event of their surrender before the concerned Judicial Magistrate within a period of two weeks from the date of this order on their executing a bond for Rs.10,000/- each with two sureties for a like sum each to the satisfaction of Judicial Magistrate, Vikravandi and on further condition that the petitioners shall appear and sign before the Respondent Police Station daily at 10.00 A.M for a period of 2 weeks (including holidays) from the next day of execution of bond before the trial Court and on further conditions that,

(a) the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank Pass Book to ensure their identity;

(b) the petitioners shall not commit any offences of similar nature;

(c) the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial,

(d) the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial,

(e) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial court himself/herself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560].

(f) If the accused thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR can be registered under section 269 of B.N.S.

Accordingly, this petition is allowed.

Pronounced by me in open court this the 23rd day of March 2026.

Principal Sessions Judge,
Villupuram. (I/c)
