Tagore Public Shikshan Sansthan Vs. Kuldeep Singh

behalf of both sides through their counsels.

3. Today, appellant-accused Ajit Saharan, Authorized signatory of Tagore Public Shikshan Sansthan Kalanwas Churu had suffered a statement that the matter has been settled with respondent-complainant and in this regard he has placed on file compromise Ex.CI. He prayed to compound the offence.

4. On the other hand, Sh. Devit Legha, learned counsel for the respondent has also suffered a statement that the present matter has been compromised between parties and now nothing is due towards appellant-convict and in this regard compromise Ex.C1 placed on file, so, he has no objection to compound the offence.

5. Heard. The alleged offence is compoundable. Therefore, the application is allowed. Since the complainant has compounded the offence with the permission of the Court, accused is entitled to acquittal in view of Section 320 of Cr.P.C. Therefore, the appeal is allowed. The impugned judgment of conviction and order of sentence dated 18.02.2026 passed by the Trial Court are set aside. The appellant-accused is acquitted. Learned Trial Court's Record alongwith copy of this order be sent to the Trial Court and appeal file be consigned to the record-room.
