Cr.No.46/2026

U/s. 296(b), 127(2), 115(2) and 351(2) of BNS r/w.

Section 4 of TNPHW Act.

... Respondent/ Complainant.

This petition coming on this day before me for hearing in the presence of Thiru.S.Muniyandi, Advocate for the petitioners and Thiru.S.Thirumalaiappan, Public Prosecutor for the respondent and upon hearing the argument of both sides, this court made the following.

ORDER

It is an application for anticipatory bail u/s.482 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS).

FIR was registered against the petitioners/A1 to A4 for the offences u/s.296(b), 127(2), 115(2) and 351(2) of BNS r/w.Section 4 of TNPHW Act. The occurrence happened on 10-03-2026.

As per FIR, there was a previous enmity existed between the parties in respect of land dispute and in continuation to that on 10-03-2026 at about 8-00 pm when the cow belongs to the defacto complainant was grazed the guava plant of accused and hence A1 and A2 abused the defacto complainant using filthy language, further A3 and A4 catch hold him and A1 assaulted with hands and further threatened to kill him.

According to the learned counsel for the petitioners, the petitioners are innocent and they have not committed any such offence and prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. On the other hand, the learned Public Prosecutor contended that if the petitioners are granted anticipatory bail they would commit similar types of offences again and hence he objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Heard both sides. Records perused. On perusal of records would show that it is a case and a counter case and that this case arose in continuation to the civil dispute which is already exist between the parties and the injured discharged from the hospital. In such circumstances, considering that the civil dispute leads to the occurrence and also considering the fact that the injured discharged from the hospital, hence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with conditions.

Accordingly, the petition is allowed and the petitioners/A1 to A4 shall be released on bail in the event of their arrest or on appearance before the Judicial Magistrate, Watrap, within two weeks on the following terms:-

i) The petitioners shall execute a personal bond for Rs.10,000/- with two sureties for the likesum to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate, Watrap.

ii) The petitioners/accused shall appear before the respondent PS everyday at 6-00 pm until further orders.

iii) The petitioners shall not abscond either during the investigation or trial, that the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

iv) The petitioners shall make themselves available for interrogation by a Police Officer as and when required.

v) The petitioners shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any Police Officer.

vi) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the Judicial Magistrate is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Judicial Magistrate himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji Vs. State of Kerala (2005) AIR SCW 5560.

Pronounced by me in the Open Court on this the 24th day of March 2026.
