U/s.296(b),103(1) of BNS. ... Respondent/ Complainant.

This petition coming on this day before me for hearing in the presence of Thiru.V.Muthumani, Advocate for the petitioners and Thiru.S.Thirumalaiappan, Public Prosecutor for the respondent and upon hearing the argument of both sides, this court made the following

ORDER

It is an application for bail u/s.483 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS)

FIR was registered against the petitioner/A3 for the offences u/s.296(b),103(1) of BNS. The occurrence happened on 08-04-2026 and the petitioner is under custody for the past 24 days from 15-05-2026 onwards.

As per FIR, On 08-04-2026 at about 17-15 pm, there was a previous enmity existed between the parties and during the quarrel, the defacto complainant's husband abused the defacto complainant's son and assaulted with wooden log and thereby caused injuries on his head, face, hip and thereby caused death to him and also threatened the witnesses if they disclosed anybody.

According to the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any such offence and prays to enlarge the petitioner on bail. On the other hand, the learned Public Prosecutor contended that if the petitioner is released on bail he would tamper with the prosecution witnesses and hence he objected to grant bail to the petitioner.

Heard both sides. Records perused. On perusal of records would show that it is a case of murder and the learned P.P. strongly opposed to grant bail on the ground that investigation is pending and the charge sheet is not yet filed and subsequently A2 was arrested and A3 still in absconding. In such circumstances, considering that it is a case of murder and the petitioner is under custody only 24 days and the investigation is pending and the charge sheet not yet filed and A3 still in absconding and the bail petition filed by the co-accused A1 was dismissed today in Cr.M.P.No.1436/2026, hence this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

In the result, the petition is dismissed.

Pronounced by me in the Open Court on this the 08th day of June 2026.

Principal District and Sessions Judge,
Virudhunagar District at Srivilliputtur.
