Cr.No.285/2026
U/s.296(b), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS.

... Respondent/ Complainant.

This petition coming on this day before me for hearing in the presence of Thiru.K.Vellaisamy, Advocate for the petitioners and Thiru.S.Thirumalaiappan, Public Prosecutor for the respondent and upon hearing the argument of both sides, this court made the following

ORDER

It is an application for anticipatory bail u/s.482 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS).

FIR was registered against the petitioners/A1 to A3 for the offences u/s.296(b), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS. The occurrence happened on 05-06-2026.

As per FIR, the accused are the maternal uncle of the defacto complainant and there was a previous enmity existed in respect of ancient house and in continuation to tht on 05-06-2026 at about 4-30 am when the defacto complainant was sleeping in the house, at that time the petitioners came to the occurrence place, abused the defacto complainant using filthy language, assaulted with stone and thereby caused injuries to him and also threatened to kill him.

According to the learned counsel for the petitioners, the petitioners are innocent and they have not committed any such offence and prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. On the other hand, the learned Public Prosecutor contended that if the petitioners are granted anticipatory bail they would commit similar types of offences again and hence he objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Heard both sides. Records perused. On perusal of records would show that it is a case of abusing, assaulting and threatening arose on account of ancient house. The learned P.P. raised objection to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, but he conceded that the injured discharged from the hospital and the petitioners have no previous case. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent and both the defacto complainant and accused are close relatives and hence, they may be granted anticipatory bail on any conditions.

Considering the facts and circumstances of this case, the case arose in respect of ancient house and the injured discharged from the hospital and the petitioners have no previous case. Hence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with the following conditions.

Accordingly the petition is allowed and the petitioners/A1 to A3 shall be released on bail in the event of their arrest or on appearance before the Judicial Magistrate No.I, Sivakasi, within two weeks on the following terms:-

i) The petitioners shall execute a personal bond for Rs.10,000/- with two sureties for the like to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate No.I, Sivakasi.

ii) The petitioners/accused shall appear before the respondent PS everyday at 6-00 pm for 30 days.

iii) The petitioners shall not abscond either during the investigation or trial, that the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

iv) The petitioners shall make themselves available for interrogation by a Police Officer as and when required.

v) The petitioners shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any Police Officer.

vi) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the Judicial Magistrate is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Judicial Magistrate himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji Vs. State of Kerala (2005) AIR SCW 5560.

Pronounced by me in the Open Court on this the 09th day of June 2026.
