ORDER

09.04.2026

This bail application is filed by the accused petitioner U/s 483 of BNSS seeking his release on bail on the grounds stated therein.

2. The petitioner is the accused in G.R. case No. 182/2026 pending in the Court of learned SDJM, Chatrapur for commission of offences U/s 126(2)/115(2)/85/296/109/351(3) of BNS.

3. Heard both the sides on bail.

4. The learned counsel for the accused petitioner submitted that the accused petitioner is an innocent person and has been falsely implicated in this case. It is further submitted that no prima facie offence U/s 109 of BNS is made out against the accused petitioner and there is strong ill-feeling between the parties on the issue of loan amount incurred by the accused petitioner. The accused petitioner is the only earning member of his family and in the meantime, the major part of investigation has already been completed so there is less chance of tampering of prosecution evidences. The accused petitioner is in jail custody since 13.02.2026. The accused petitioner is a permanent resident of village- Barapalli under the jurisdiction of Ganjam P.S., so there is remote chance of his absconding and he is ready to abide by any conditions which will be imposed upon him if he is released on bail.

Learned counsel for the accused petitioner also filed a certificate stating therein that there is no bail application filed or pending before any other court including Hon'ble High Court of Orissa, Cuttack as on today.

5. The learned Addl. P.P. opposed the bail application and submitted that the accused petitioner committed the offence punishable U/s 126(2)/115(2)/85/296/109/351(3) of BNS and in the event, the accused petitioner is released on bail, there is every chance of his absconding and may not co-operate in the investigation as well as in the trial.

6. On perusal of the materials available in the case record, I found that the accused petitioner is alleged to have been involved in commission of offences U/s 126(2)/115(2)/85/296/109/351(3) of BNS. On perusal of the FIR, it reveals that the informant has a dwelling house as well as cultivable land at village-Barapalli which is the only source of their livelihood for their family. The husband of the informant (accused petitioner) is always compelling her to sell the said land forcibly and when she opposes, the accused uses to assault her. On 13.02.2026 at 3 p.m. while she was present in her house, the accused petitioner demanded Rs. 1,00,000/- from her and threatened to kill her if she failed to give the money. When she refused to meet his demand, the accused tried to assault her by means of a crow-bar, but the informant ran towards the road, the accused chased her and attempted to stab her by means of that crow-bar. In the said process, the informant fell down on the ground and the accused stabbed her on her thigh by means of that crow-bar. Thereafter, the informant was shifted to hospital by her in-laws.

Perused the F.I.R., statement of the witnesses recorded U/s 180 BNSS, injury report of the injured and other connected documents available in the case record. On perusal of the injury report, it reveals that the injured has sustained simple injuries on her person. During course of hearing of bail application, the informant-cum-injured has filed an affidavit to the effect that now the matter has amicably settled between them. The investigation of this case has substantially progressed to a considerable extent. The accused petitioner is in jail custody since 13.02.2026 and in the meantime, he must have felt the rigors of law. The accused petitioner is a permanent resident of village- Barapalli under the territorial jurisdiction of Ganjam P.S., so there is remote chance of his fleeing from justice.

7. Having regard to the nature and gravity of the offence, the accused petitioner is involved in, stage of the case, permanent residency of the accused petitioner, period of detention and all the factors mentioned above, I am inclined to release the accused petitioner on bail, subject to certain conditions. Accordingly, let the accused petitioner be released on bail by furnishing bail bond of Rs. 30,000/- (thirty thousand) with two solvent sureties for the like amount with the following conditions that: -

- (i) he shall not indulge in any criminal activity and shall not commit any offence of similar nature,
- (ii) he shall not coerce, influence or threaten the prosecution witnesses while on bail,
- (iii) he shall appear before the I.O. as and when required till submission of F.F., and violation of any of the above conditions shall entail cancellation of the bail.

Send back the TCR along with copy of this order to the SDJM, Chatrapur for information and necessary action.
