13.05.2023: The case record is put up before the 2nd National Lok Adalat, 2023 held today in the Civil Court premises, Athagarh. The Petitioner and her Counsel are present. The Counsel for the O.P. No.2- National Insurance Co. Ltd and his authorized agent are present. The Petitioner and the insurance company have settled their dispute and filed the compromise to settle the claim in the form of compromise.

Perused the joint petition for compromise filed by them. The compromise is in order. Hence, the compromise is allowed. The parties have settled the claimed compensation at Rs. 20,000/- (Rupees twenty thousand only) to the full and final satisfaction of the claim without any interest and both parties undertake to be binding on the award. Further, the O.P. No.2 is directed to pay the compensation amount in shape of cheque within thirty days of this order. The compensation awarded in favour of the Petitioner is to be distributed as below.

Petitioner Suranjeeta Mohanty	Rs. 20,000/-	--	Rs. 20,000/- in cash
----------------------------------	--------------	----	----------------------

The compensation amount is to be paid by the O.P. No.2 towards the full and final settlement of the claim within the stipulated time, failing which interest @ 6% per annum is to be paid by the insurance company to the Petitioner and the compensation amount be recovered under the process of law. Put up when the required affidavit be filed by the Petitioner.
