

State Vs. Karan Rana

FIR No. 256 of 19.12.2020

u/s 379, 411 , 483 IPC

PS: Nangal

Present Ld. APP for the State
 Sh.Anuj Thakur Advocate , counsel for applicant/accused.

Bail application put up before me being duty Magistrate. Heard upon bail application filed on behalf of applicant/accused Karan Rana . It is averred in the application that applicant/accused has been falsely involved in the present case and he is innocent and respectable parson and has no connection with the alleged occurrence. With these submissions, prayer has been made for allowing the present application.

Notice of the application was given to State through APP for the State but no reply was filed by the APP, who however, opposed the application orally by stating the offence committed by the accused under Section 482 IPC rather than Section 484 IPC. The offence alleged to be committed by the accused person are of grave social economic consequence against the society and vehemently opposed the bail application. Per contra learned counsel for the accused has argued that there is no previous conviction against the accused and that submission of challan and conclusion of trial will take time against the accused and with these submissions, prayer has been made for allowing the present application.

Perusal of the remand papers reveals that the accused/applicant is in custody since 19.12.2020 and further allegations leveled against the accused in the FIR concerned are the matter of evidence, which is to be seen at the stage of trial later on and no useful purpose will be served by keeping the accused in custody for indefinite period as completion of investigation, submission of challan and conclusion of trial will take time. Accordingly, accused Karan Rana is admitted to bail on his furnishing bail bond in the sum of ₹ 1,00,000/- with one surety in the like amount, subject to following conditions:-

- (a) that he shall attend the Court in accordance with the conditions of the bond executed by them;

- (b) He shall not commit an offence similar to the offence of which he is accused or of the commission of which is suspected.
- (c) that he shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case, so as to dissuade them from disclosing such facts to the court or to any police official;
- (d) that they shall not leave India without prior permission of the court;

The requisite bail bonds and surety bonds furnished, which are attested and accepted. Now release warrant of accused accused is ordered to be issued immediately. Papers be attached with the remand papers. Bail application, complete in all respect be sent to the concerned court.
