

HARBANS SINGH VS. SHO P.S. JULKAN

Present: Sh.Davinder Singh Roharjagir, Advocate for accused-applicants.
Sh.V.K.Khullar, Addl.P.P. for State alongwith SI Hans Raj.

SI Hans Raj given the report in writing, wherein it has been specifically alleged that neither any case has been got registered and nor applicants-accused are required in any case to the police. Learned counsel for applicants-accused pressing for anticipatory bail, which has been opposed by the learned Addl.P.P. on the ground that no blanket bail could be granted.

After hearing their respective submissions and in view of the report submitted by SI Hans Raj on record, it is clear that neither any criminal case has been got registered against the applicants-accused and nor even any application is pending before the police. Keeping in view of these facts and circumstances, it is clear that the applicants-accused have no apprehension of their arrest from the police, when no criminal case has been got registered against them. As such, applicants-accused are not entitled for blanket anticipatory bail, which is the prayer of learned counsel for applicants-accused. Consequently, such prayer is hereby declined. Resultantly, bail application of applicants-accused is hereby dismissed. File be consigned to record room after due compilation.

Pronounced: 2.8.2018
mukesh kumar stenographer-III

Dharminder Paul Singla
Additional Sessions Judge, Pta
UID NO. PB0083