Case called out. Learned counsel for the applicant is present. Heard the learned counsel on this transfer application.

Learned counsel for the applicant has filed this transfer application mainly with the averments that Execution Case No.-14/ 2025, Subhash Saini & Ors. vs. Kishna & Ors is pending in the court of Additional Civil Judge(Sr. Div.), Court No.10, Ghaziabad. Misc. Case No.-02/ 2026, Kishna vs. Subhash is pending in the court of Additional Civil Judge(Sr. Div.), Court No.1, Ghaziabad. Learned counsel has further submitted that an ex-parte judgment in Case No.1682/ 2013 was passed by the Court of ACJ (Sr. Div.), Court No.1, Ghaziabad. The applicant is unable to get justice due to the pendency of cases in different courts. Therefore the cases shall be decided by one and the same court. Hence a prayer has been made to transfer the above stated cases in one and the same court for its disposal.

Comments were sought from the concerned courts. Learned Presiding Officers of the courts concerned have apprised through comments that the said cases are pending in that courts and they have no objection, if the said cases are transferred to the other courts.

Considered the submissions made on behalf of the applicant and perused the comment of the concerned courts, it is evident that the cases are pending in different courts. It is stated by the applicant that the Case No.1682/ 2013 was decided by the Court of ACJ (Sr. Div.), Court No.1 and a misc. case no.02/ 2026 is also pending in that court. Hence, considering the above said reasons or in order to avoid possibility of contradictory findings, it would be appropriate that the cases shall be heard and disposed of by the one and the same Court. Therefore, transfer application deserves to be allowed.

ORDER
