

Sukhchain Singh @ Chaina Vs. State
CNR No. PSBMB1-002136-2026
FIR No. 155 dated 17.05.2026
Under Sections:- 21-A/61/85 of NDPS Act
PS:- Lambi.

BA-316-2026

Present: Sh. Kamaljeet Singh Sidhu, Advocate counsel for applicants / accused Sukhchain Singh @ Chaina.
Sh. Jashandeep Tarika, Ld. APP for State.

Heard on the bail application moved by applicant/accused Sukhchain Singh @ Chaina. Counsel for the accused/applicant has argued that the accused / applicant has been falsely implicated in the above said case. Nothing has been recovered from the accused / applicant as alleged by the police. On these grounds, request was made that the bail application kindly be allowed.

On the other side Ld. APP for the State opposed the said application and argued that the offence committed by the accused are serious in nature, therefore, the bail should not be granted and bail application kindly be dismissed.

I have heard the respective pleas of Ld. APP for the State and Ld. Counsel for the accused/applicant and have gone through the record carefully.

Heard. Record perused. From a careful consideration of the rival contentions, it is to be stated that the applicant / accused is in custody in the present case since 17.05.2026. Considering the quantity of recovery i.e. 02 grams of heroine including weight of polythene pouch which means weight of contraband recovered is below 05 grams and same falls in small quantity and the law laid down by Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court in the case titled "Kuldeep Singh @ Keepa Vs. State of Punjab" in which it was held that "case involving small quantity under the NDPS Act is "Bailable" by operation of BNSS and accused will be entitled for bail without filing bail application", lenient view is taken against the applicant / accused and further no useful purpose will be served by detaining him in custody during the proceedings of the present case and even otherwise it is not the case of the prosecution that if released on bail, accused / applicant will tamper with the prosecution witnesses.

So, in view of my aforesaid observations, the present bail application filed on behalf of applicant / accused Sukhchain Singh @ Chaina is allowed and applicant / accused is ordered to be released on bail on his furnishing bail bonds in the sum of Rs. 50,000/- with one surety of the like amount, with the conditions that he will not tamper with the prosecution evidence and appear in the court on each and every date of hearing. Bail bonds and surety bonds have not been furnished. Application stands disposed off. Be tagged. Copy of this order be sent to jail superintendent of necessary information.
