

Order below Exh. 1 In SCC No.1949/2011

Today case is taken on special drive board. The present case is registered and presented on 01.07.2011. The accused is not produced along with the charge sheet and earlier was released on bail. However, since then he failed to appear before the court. The period of about 10 years is passed. Considering the nature of the offence it is appropriate to stop the proceeding after lapse of 10 years. In spite of repeated service to the accused his presence could not be secured. Therefore, there is no successful adjudication of the present case after lapse of such period. No fruit will bear by putting the matter on the board pending. Therefore, it will be appropriate to stop the proceeding in the present case. Hence, following order is passed:

ORDER

1. Proceeding is stopped as per section 258 of Cr.PC.
2. The accused is released with effect of discharge.
3. His SB and PR stand cancelled. Cash surety is forfeited to the Government.
