Date-01.04.2026

This anticipatory bail application on behalf of the Applicants /accused Gufraan, Anas & Israt has been filed in connection with Case No. 420/2025 under Sections 115(2),352,351(2),110 BNS Police Station Kairana, District Shamli.

The learned counsel for the applicants /accused and the learned District Government Advocate (Criminal) are present, who have stated that the aforesaid case is punishable with maximum imprisonment of seven years. During the investigation, the applicants/accused have not been arrested by the investigating officer, and they have been served with a notice under Section 35(3) BNSS by the police. In the present case the charge sheet has been filed against the accused in the court. On the aforementioned grounds, it is prayed that the applicants/accused be released on anticipatory bail.

Heard and perused the case file.

Heard the learned counsel for both parties and perused the documents on record. From perusal of the case file, it is evident that the charge sheet under Sections 115(2),352,351(2),110 BNS has been filed against the applicants/accused in the said case and during the investigation, the applicants/accused have not been arrested. Further, they have been served with a notice under Section 35(3) BNSS by the police. The present case is punishable with maximum imprisonment of seven years and falls under the guidelines issued by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Satyendra Kumar Antil vs. CBI (2025). Therefore, the Applicants /accused are directed to appear before the trial court till the scheduled date.

In view of the aforesaid facts and circumstances, and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, the trial court is directed that if a bail application is filed on behalf of the Applicants/accused before the trial court, the trial court shall ensure to pass orders on the merits of this case in light of the facts and circumstances, while strictly complying with the guidelines laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Satyendra Kumar Antil vs. CBI (2025) and the various guidelines issued by the Hon'ble High Court.

Accordingly, the aforesaid anticipatory bail application stands disposed of.
