Case Crime No. 178/2026

Under Sections 125 BNS & 25/27 Arms Act
PS Kotwali Shamli Dist.- Shamli

Date- 01.06.2026

This anticipatory bail application on behalf of the applicant /accused Sukhdaas has been filed in connection with Case No. 178/2026 under Sections 125 BNS & 25/27 Arms Act BNS, Police Station Kotwali Shamli, District Shamli.

The learned counsel for the applicant/accused and the learned District Government Advocate (Criminal) are present, who have stated that the aforesaid case is triable by the Magistrate Court, punishable with maximum imprisonment of seven years. During the investigation, the applicant/accused has not been arrested by the investigating officer, and he has been served with a notice under Section 35(3) BNSS by the police. On the aforementioned grounds, it is prayed that the applicant/accused be released on anticipatory bail.

Heard and perused the case file.

Heard the learned counsel for both parties and perused the documents on record. From perusal of the case file, it is evident that during the investigation, the applicant/accused has not been arrested by the investigating officer. Further, he has been served with a notice under Section 35(3) BNSS by the police. The present case is triable by the Magistrate Court, punishable with maximum imprisonment of seven years and falls under the guidelines issued by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Satyendra Kumar Antil vs. CBI (2025). Therefore, the applicant /accused is directed to appear before the trial court on the scheduled date.

In view of the aforesaid facts and circumstances, and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, the trial court is directed that if a bail application is filed on behalf of the applicant/accused before the trial court, the trial court shall ensure to pass orders on the merits of this case in light of the facts and circumstances, while strictly complying with the guidelines laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Satyendra Kumar Antil vs. CBI (2025) and the various guidelines issued by the Hon'ble High Court.

Accordingly, the aforesaid anticipatory bail application stands disposed of.
