Order No.02 dated 09.07.2026

Chief Judicial Magistrate, Suri, Birbhum.

An affidavit has been filed by Sekh Azim, one of the petitioners of this case stating that no such bail application under section 482 of BNSS has been filed, nor any application is rejected by any higher forum.

The Ld. advocate for the petitioners has submitted that FIR is an aftermath of post poll violence after 2023 panchayat election and the allegations are false and fabricated. Submitting that the case has been initiated in order to harass the political rivals, the Ld. advocate has pleaded for pre-arrest bail of the petitioners.

The defacto complainant Ananta Dom has entered appearance by engaging an advocate and the Ld. advocate appearing on behalf of the defacto complainant has submitted that the FIR maker (who is present in the Court room) has no knowledge about the alleged FIR and he did not intend to lodge any such FIR. It is submitted that he was merely 23 years old at the time of alleged incident and he was not even a political worker as mentioned in the FIR. The Ld. advocate has supported the prayer for bail.

Ld. PP, Birbhum is heard. He has produced the CD.

The CD is perused. Though there are materials in the CD, going by the submission made on behalf of the defacto complainant this Court is not against to grant the prayer for anticipatory bail. Upon careful scrutiny of the materials in the CD, it is observed that the prayer for anticipatory bail may be allowed. Accordingly, prayer for anticipatory bail is allowed.
