T.C.R. received. C.D. is also produced.

Heard the Ld. Advocate for the petitioners and Ld. P.P. In-charge.

It is submitted by the Ld. Advocate for the petitioners that these accused persons did not commit any serious offence and they have been falsely implicated in this case out of grudge, and nature of allegation is as such, custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not needed in this case. Moreover, this case is filed as a counter blast to the case filed by the petitioners' side which has been registered as Bhatar P.S. Case No. 111 of 2026. It is the further submission of the Ld. Advocate that no such application of these petitioners has either been moved before or rejected by the Hon'ble Court or by this Court on any earlier occasion. Hence, Ld. Advocate prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners on any condition as this Court deems fit.

Objection raised by the Ld. P.P. in-charge.

Considered the submissions placed. Perused the materials available on record and in the C.D. including the injury report.

It is evident that the victim was treated and discharged by the hospital on the same day as outdoor patient.

Considering the materials available in the C.D., nature of allegation and injury, and facts and circumstances, I am of the view that custodial interrogation of the present petitioners is not needed in this case. Accordingly, their prayer u/s 482 B.N.S.S. is allowed.

In the event of arrest of the above named petitioners in connection with the above noted case, they shall be released on bail on furnishing bonds of Rs. 3,000/- each with two sureties of Rs. 1,500/- each, subject to the satisfaction of the arresting officer, on the conditions stipulated in section 482(2) B.N.S.S.
