

ORDER BELOW EXH.1

1] Police of Bhosari Police Station filed “B” Summary Report in respect of C.R. No. 242/2017 for offences U/Sec. 376 of Indian Penal Code and under Sections 3,4,5(j)(l), 6 of Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act.

2] After receiving 'B' summary report, notice was issued to first informant. She has filed say and she has stated that she has no objection for granting “B” summary.

3] It appears that mother of the victim has lodged report against the accused Vaibhav Repote by making allegations that under pretext of marriage, he has established two times physical relations with the victim. The victim was 17 years and 7 months old and the accused made her pregnant. It was revealed to the investigating officer that the victim has been married to Ashok Kadappa Kadam, when she was minor and her marriage was performed by her parents. Due to fear of police case, they named accused Vaibhav Repote falsely.

4] From the documents tendered by the investigating officer, it appears that the victim and the informant falsely told the police that the victim was unmarried due to fear and named Vaibhav Repote by making allegations against him. Further, the informant has stated that she is illiterate and therefore, she did not know contents of her report. There is marriage invitation card of the victim and one Ashok Kadam and marriage was occurred on 12.05.2014. When the victim returned to her maternal house, she decided to abort and when she went for abortion, her age was revealed minor. Therefore, wrongly the report has been lodged against Vaibhav Repote.

5] In the circumstances, the informant has given no objection for granting “B” Summary. Hence, there is no alternative but to accept

'B' summary report filed by the Investigating Officer. With this I proceed to pass the following order-
