

District: Purba Bardhaman.

In the Court of the Sessions Judge, Purba Bardhaman, at Burdwan.

Present: Shri Sujay Sengupta,

Sessions Judge, Purba Bardhaman.

Criminal Revision No. 73 of 2024

(CNR NO. WBBD 01 004748 2024)

Anai Sekh

- versus-

Sk. Nurul Huda & another

---

Order no. 08 dated 19.06.2025.

The record is put up today on the basis of a put up petition filed on behalf of the revisionist of this case.

He also files an application praying for recalling the order dated 18.06.2025 passed by this court and for restoration of this revision to its original file and number on the grounds stated therein. Copy served.

Heard the Ld. Advocate for the parties.

It is submitted by the Ld. Advocate for the revisionist that owing to his business in another court he could not present himself when the case was called on for hearing for which the revisional application has been dismissed for default. It is further submitted that if such opportunity is not given to him, the revisionist shall suffer irreparable loss and injury.

Objection raised by the Ld. Advocate for the O.P. No.1.

Peruse the materials on record. Considered the submissions of both sides.

Considering the facts and circumstances depicted before me and nature of proceeding, I am of the view that an opportunity should be given to the revisionist to proceed with the case. Hence, prayer made by the revisionist is allowed.

Order dated 18.06.2025 passed by this court in connection with this revision stands recalled.

Let the revision be restored to its original file and number.

Office to do the needful.

To 18.07.2025 for hearing of this revision.

Dictated & corrected by me.

S. J. Purba Bardhaman.

Sessions Judge, Purba Bardhaman.

Later: Order no. 09 dated 19.06.2025.

In view of previous order instant criminal revision is restored to its original file and number.

To date (18.07.2025).

Sessions Judge, Purba Bardhaman.