

Present: Complainant with counsel.

Non-Bailable warrant issued to accused not received back. Presence of accused could not be procured despite issuance of Non-Bailable warrants. This court is satisfied that the presence of accused can not be procured through Non-Bailable warrant. As such, accused is ordered to be summoned through proclamation by way of publication in the newspaper "Ashiana" on filing of publication charges by the complainant for 23.10.2017. Complainant is directed to deposit the requisite publication charges within three days, failing which the complaint will be dismissed under Section 204 (4) Cr.P.C.
