

Criminal Enquiry No.- 30/2022

::Order Below Exhibit-01::

(Read Sec. 202 & 204 of "The Code Of Criminal Procedure-1973")

Scrutinized the record of the case & heard Complainant side.

Observing the entire record of the case, it appears to the Court that, the accused has issued the Cheque/s (Instrument/s) to the Complainant in discharge of such legal liability/debt as narrated within the complaint. The said instrument/s upon presentation before the bank were returned unpaid with an endorsement as Fund Insufficient.

Despite of appropriate service of demand notice as prescribed within Sec.-138 of Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 the drawer/accused has neglected to make payment of the sum/s stated upon the instrument/s, to the complaint, within such period of time as prescribed under law. The complaint also appears to be in consonance with law.

The list of the Witness/s as mandated U/Sec. 204(2), has come to be filed with compliant.

Thus, Considering the entire matter before the Court, it finds reasonable grounds for proceeding against the accused and hence inclined to pass below said order in connection to this inquiry.

::Order::

The Complaint is hereby order to be admitted by taking it upon relevant Criminal Register.

Observing the complaint it appears that, list of the prosecution witnesses, as mandated U/Sec. 204(2) of Cr.P.C. has been filed. Hence, summons for appearance, accompanied with copy of complaint is hereby ordered to be issued, upon accused of the case, returnable as on 10/11/2022.

The present inquiry is hereby ordered to be disposed of accordingly.
