

02.09.2021

The case is posted today for hearing. Both the parties as well as their respective counsels are found absent both physically and virtually on call. The local BAR members are also maintaining abstention in day-to-day court work till 20.09.2021 except in custodial bail matters, I.A matters, disposal of property matters and urgent revenue matters on the ground of anticipating the spread of new variant of COVID-19, vide their Resolution dtd. 31.08.2021. Due to the non-cooperation of the local Bar members on account of their resolution, the further progress of the case could not be made and this court is also constrained not to pass any adverse order. Hence, issue notice to the petitioner through Court motion, directing him to present before this Court physically and to take steps. Otherwise, the case will be decided in his absence according to law. Putup on dt.29.09.2021 for appearance of petitioner and hearing.
