

96 TC 34/2026 STATE Vs. RAHUL GOEL

E-challan Details: DL254367251209190700 – DL4CBE0412

13.04.2026

Present: Ld. APP for State.
None for the Violator.

The matter is at the stage of appearance of the violator for many dates. Despite sufficient opportunities to the violator, the violator has neither appeared nor furnished any explanation regarding his absence.

The matter pertains to traffic violation and keeping the matter pending only increases burden on the Court and national treasury. Therefore, it is necessary to call upon the violator through coercive action for further proceedings and disposal.

In view of the above and observing the avoidant conduct of the violator, the Court deems it fit to take coercive action against the violator.

Let Bailable warrants in the sum of Rs. 2000/- with one surety of like amount be issued against the accused returnable on 29.05.2026.
