The Learned Advocate engaged by the Sub-Divisional Legal Services Committee moves the application made by the IO on 14/01/2021 for interim compensation. It is stated that the victim child belongs to a very poor family necessitating immediate financial help.

No other ground except financial condition of the family is mentioned for interim compensation. It is not stated that there is any necessity of medical treatment, change of school or change of residence after commission of the alleged offence.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case the prayer for interim compensation is rejected.
