

CW1 and accused are present. Both have submitted that they are compromised. CW1 who is the first informant of this case has submitted that the case is compounded against the accused person and filed application U/sec. 320 of Cr.P.C and he has also filed the copy of his Adhar card.

The alleged offences against the accused persons are punishable U/sec. 341, 323, 504, 506 of IPC. All these offences are compoundable in nature. On perusal of the application, it appears that the complainant has filed this application in accordance with law and there is no illegality in the application. Therefore, the application is allowed. The case is compounded against the accused person and accused person is acquitted for the above said offences. Accordingly the case is disposed.

Sd/–

Prl.Civil Judge and JMFC.Honavar