Smt. Priya GhoshPetitioner No.1

Vs.

Sri Shuvadip GhoshRespondent / O.P.

Order No. 08

Dt- 27-03-2026

Record is, therefore, taken up for passing necessary order in the suit.

Today the petitioners, namely Smt. Priya Ghosh is present before the Court along with her Ld Advocates by filing hazira.

The petitioner had filed her examination-in-chief by affidavit and accepted as her oral evidences.

The marriage between the parties took place on 06-11-2020 according to Special Marriage Act before marriage officer Mr. Tapas Kumar Sarkar, being certificate Under Section 13 of ACT XLIII of 1954 was executed being certificate No. WB33500202020800302478-2020-123116 dated 06-11-2020, which was beyond the knowledge of the petitioner. After few days of the said marriage the petitioner on several time asked the respondent/O.P that he was not ready for marriage and he performed registration of marriage under the pressure of his relatives and being heard the petitioner informed the matter to her parents and there after her parents informed that matter to the parents of the respondent and thereafter parents of the respondent informed the petitioner as well as to her parents that respondent will lead his life on his own accord and they also informed that if respondent did not agree in the said marriage and on every time over phone call respondent used to make quarrel with the petitioner and lastly on 15-11-2024 the respondent over phone informed the petitioner that he will not perform any social marriage and also stated that they will not perform social marriage. The said marriage was only a paper registry and nothing else and the said marriage has not consummated between the petitioner and respondent so the said registry marriage is voidable one and may be annulled by decree of nullity.

The cause of action of the present suit arises on and from after few days of the registration of marriage and finally on 15-11-2024, when the respondent stated to the petitioner that he will not lead any relation with the petitioner.

Considering all the facts and evidence on record, and on the basis of unchallenged testimony It appears that the factual aspects of the case is proved exparte and that it would be in the interest of the parties to the suit that the instant petition for annulment of marriage should be allowed.

C.F. paid is correct.

Hence, it is

ORDERED

That the petition for annulment of marriage dt. 06-11-2020 filed on 30-06-2025. is allowed exparte .

The marriage held between the parties namely Smt. Priya Ghosh and Sri Shuvadip Ghosh on 06-11-2020 is hereby annulled by decree of Nullity of marriage granted U/s 25 of Special Marriage Act,1954 with effect from the date of the decree.

The matrimonial suit is disposed of accordingly.
