State Vs Ankit

Present : Sh. Amit Siwach, PP for State.

Sh. RK Badal, Advocate for accused Ankit @ Dholia.

(Accused Ankit @ Dholia present in custody)

Four private witnesses were summoned for today out of whom only one namely Parveen has turned up, but learned counsel for the complainant intends to examine him after the deposition of complainant and other private witnesses. Hence, PW Parveen is discharged for time being.

Summon of complainant Sant Lal, and his two brothers Pankaj and Sumer Singh have returned unserved with report of co-villager Mehar Chand that they have left the village for couple of days and will inform them as and when they will return. It is the tailored report to delay the trial. Once counsel for complainant is present, then complainant and all private witnesses are supposed to remain present at their own. Hence, without adopting any coercive step this time, matter is adjourned to 31.05.2024 on which date complainant and both his brother are supposed to remain present at their own for deposition, failing which court will adopt coercive action.

Dated : 28.05.2024.
