1] This is an application under Section 483 of the Bhartiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (in short 'BNSS') for grant of regular bail to the accused viz. Ravina Akshay Nanawat.

2] Perused application and reply thereon filed by the investigating officer and Ld. APP. Heard Ld. Counsel for both the sides.

3] It is the case of prosecution that accused was found while preparing an illicit liquor with the help of some chemicals. Accordingly, accused was arrested red handed at the spot of incident. Accordingly, FIR came to be registered against the accused vide Crime No.546/2026 registered with Yavat Police Station.

4] Ld. Counsel for the accused submitted that the accused is falsely implicated in the crime. The place where the police conducted the raid is not belong to accused. Moreover, offence punishable under Section 123 of the Bharitya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 does not apply in the present facts of the case. Furthermore, accused is ready to abide by all the conditions which may be imposed while granting the bail. Hence, it is prayed to release the accused on bail.

5] Per contra, Ld. APP and investigating officer submitted that huge quantity of illicit liquor as well as chemical and other things which were being used for preparing the illicit liquor are recovered from the custody of accused. Moreover, accused may dissuade the panch witnesses, if she is released on bail. Furthermore, accused may indulge in the similar kind of activity, if released on bail. Hence, it is prayed to reject the application.

6] Perusal of FIR as well as police paper shows the involvement of accused in the alleged offence. Moreover, huge quantity of illicit liquor as well as poisonous chemical and other things, which were being used for preparing the illicit liquor are seized from the possession of the accused. Investigation of the offence is in progress. Hence, it will not be just and proper to release the accused on bail at this stage. Hence, I hold that accused is not entitled to be released on bail. Hence, I pass the following order.

ORDER

Application is hereby rejected.
